“The Donalds” Open Campaign Headquarters in Downtown Delaware

DELAWARE, Ohio (Jan. xx, 2020) – The Delaware County campaign headquarters for the Donalds – Rankey and Trump – has opened at 48 N. Sandusky St., Delaware.

Donald Rankey is the Republican candidate for Delaware County treasurer and will be seeking his first term in 2020.

Donald Trump is seeking reelection for his second term as United States president.

Rankey is the Delaware County chairman of the Trump reelection committee. He also held the position for the 2016 election.

“It’s a thrill to be sharing campaign space with the Trump Action Center,” Rankey said. “We’re staffing the office from 9 a.m. to noon, Monday through Friday. Our goals of the Donalds mutual. We both want to win in November.

Rankey, who was endorsed by the Delaware County Republican Party Central Committee, is running unopposed in the March primary. The general election is set for Nov. 3.

Anyone interested in volunteering for either campaign can call: 800-DONALDS (800-366-2537).

Don Rankey is both a successful businessman and veteran public servant. He is the CEO of HomeLife Companies Inc., a senior living and healthcare management consulting firm, which he founded in 1991. Prior to starting HomeLife, Rankey held leadership positions for United Church Homes Inc. and National Church Residences. He is the treasurer and chief fiscal officer of the Delaware County Finance Authority. He also is a former member of Delaware City Council and considered by many as the architect of the city's downtown resurgence.
